The Charleston News.

THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1871.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

—Gold closed in New York, yesterday, at 144.
—Cotton closed steady at 11½; sales 3917 bales.
—In Liverpool closed dull but unchanged; uplands 74½; sales 10,000 bales.
—The Democrats have carried Virginia City, Nevada.
—The black caterpillar has appeared in immense numbers around Memphis.
—Atlanta has voted unanimously a quarter of a million of dollars to the Atlanta and Savannah Railroad.
—A secret political society, mostly composed of workmen, has been discovered in New York. It has been in existence only two months, and it already has a membership of fifty thousand in that city. It has branches in the larger cities known as Ruffs.
—The new national loan is by no means as popular an investment among moneyed men as Secretary Boutwell anticipated. On Friday the subscriptions to this loan amounted to but sixty-one thousand dollars. Capitalists let it alone very severely.
—Fort Pillow, at Memphis, has wholly disappeared under the abiding forces of the Mississippi. The Appeal says that the navy-yard there was once mortgaged, and adds: "The mortgage subsists, but the property has been disposed of by a power against which chancery may issue its thunder in vain."
—A New York letter says: "The Germans are initiating a very significant movement, which promises to be productive of much more important results than would appear on the surface. A grand convention of the presidents and officers of the various societies that took part in the recent peace jubilee is to meet on the 10th of May to form a national organization for social and political purposes. The German element in Philadelphia and the Western cities are expected to co-operate."
—Supervisor Kryzanski, of the District of Georgia and Florida, reports to the commissioner of Internal Revenue that the total of property seized or destroyed in his district upon illicit distilleries in that district up to the 1st of April, 1871, is as follows: 85 stills and worms, complete and in position; 122,260 gallons of beer and mash; 1794 gallons of low-wines; 399 gallons of corn whiskey; 700 gallons of peach and apple brandy; 595 bushels of corn meal, and 79 bushels of malt. Also, 80 illicit distilleries suppressed; a large number of mules, oxen, horses, and wagons seized, and 62 distillers arrested and turned over to the United States deputy marshal.
—Besides the Russian Royal Duke, Americans are to be visited this summer by the old Duke Ernest of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, brother of the late Prince Consort Albert, and George, Duke of Saxe, third son of King John First, of Saxony, and cousin to Duke Ernest, above named. He will visit the Pacific. He belongs to one of the oldest reigning houses of Europe. It gave an Emperor to Germany at the beginning of the tenth century. As if the foregoing were not enough to turn the brain of poor New York, now comes a thrilling rumor that the Princess Louise and Marquis of Lorne may visit Canada and the United States; East of the royal train comes King Thibault, of Tahiti, to beg off from the indemnity which he engaged to pay on account of his subjects who ate two American crews a few years ago.
—Being the wife of a celebrity certainly seems to give additional fame to the daughter of a distinguished man, for New York has suddenly awakened to the fact that Bret Hart's wife is one of the eight daughters of the late Judge Griswold, all of whom have been either wives of mark, or the wives of men of no small renown. Caroline married Edmund Andrade, nephew of Perce, the great banker of Paris, who originated the famous Credit Mobilier. Adelaide is enormously rich, and also a lion in musical circles. Mary, now deceased, married Braut Mayer, of Baltimore, well known as the author of "Captain Canot." Helen's husband, Captain Harrington, was the personal friend of Starr King, who first encouraged Bret Hart in the literary profession. Then one married a distinguished physician, and another a noted musical composer. The youngest is well known as the authoress, Mrs. Frances Gray Fairfield, and Anna married Francis Bret Hart.
—The New York Sun says: "The taxpayers of South Carolina will be delighted to learn that the financial agency of that State in this city is about to undergo an official investigation by the committee appointed by the Legislature for that purpose. This committee is composed of very high-toned legislators. The Hon. Benjamin F. Whittemore is chairman; the Hon. John B. Dennis, the famous South Carolina upholder, and the Hon. Timothy Hurley, of Harleyville, the Hon. S. A. Swails, and the Hon. W. H. Gardner, are members. The committee will arrive in New York about the 1st of June. Public confidence in the impartiality of this investigation will perhaps be a little shaken by the information that the financial agent has made arrangements to entertain the committee with regal splendors. They are to be quartered in a first-class hotel, and every bill paid and every want supplied by the very man whose acts they are to examine into. It is to be hoped that the committee will not allow their eyes to be closed nor their judgment warped by so much hospitality."
—The spectacle after the battle at Neully is graphically told by the London Times correspondent. Brown-red spots upon the pavement marked the passage of death, while holes ploughed in the ground, and trees torn up and shattered, show that the struggle was a desperate one. Piles of bodies, Versailles and Communists, littered the doorsteps, and lay in heaps upon the staircases, while long thin lines of blood marked the progress of some victims, wounded unto death, who had crawled into a cupboard or beneath the shadow of a fireplace, and lay there still, with calm, white faces, fixed in ghastly relief in the tight that penetrated down the chimney. Several women had fallen, in one instance pierced by many balls. All of them were in the cantiniere uniform, some with a gaily painted rifle, some strapped round the waist, others with pistols, undischarged, still in their belts. There was one lying alone within a courtyard, a handsome young woman, with black hair braided about her temples, smile upon her lips, and the fragment of a sabre in her hand. She belonged to the 5th regiment, and had been struck down by the explosion of a shell. Many women had fought sword in hand. One lady, indeed, bids fair to rival Theodor de Mercoeur—"Clotilde Eudes," as she is called, wife of the general of the same name, who now commands at Issy, and who is a member of the Commune. It is said that she has been under fire several times, and has picked off her men with soldierly sang-froid.

What the Democratic Party Will Do when in Power.

The New York World thus editorially chalks out the programme of the Democratic party, in the event of its success in the Presidential contest of 1872:

I. It will limit the annual taxes to $250,000,000, and out of this moderate revenue will apply $25,000,000 towards the extinction of the public debt; whereas the federal taxes for the last fiscal year amounted to the enormous sum of $1,255,447.

II. It will revise and reform the system of taxation so that this diminished annual burden of $25,000,000 will be equitably distributed. The present system not only overloads the faithful laborer, but it also of the load to his legs, puts a part upon his head, makes him drag a portion by his tail, obstructing his freedom of movement, and causing him the utmost annoyance. The Democratic party will withdraw every pound of the load from his limbs and extremities and collect it upon his back where he can carry it with greatest ease. It will, moreover, take good care that the taxes find their way into the public treasury, and not into the pockets of greedy, grasping monopolists.

III. The Democratic party will rectify the abuses of the present banking system; extinguishing monopoly by making the business free to all who comply with the conditions, stopping the interest on government bonds while in pledge to secure bank circulation, and guarding against a redundant currency by compelling the banks to redeem their notes in specie.

IV. It will revive our prostrate shipping interest and restore to American citizens their former large share in the profits of navigation, by free trade in ships and the repeal of duties on all articles used in their construction.

V. It will extend and complete the system of universal suffrage by abolishing the term of residence now required for naturalization, and giving intelligent white immigrants the same advantages enjoyed by our colored population. There is no reason why a thrifty German who emigrates to Texas and buys a farm should not at once be favored as a citizen as the South Carolina negro who emigrates to Texas in the same year and is employed by the German as a laborer.

VI. The Democratic party will faithfully fulfill all the obligations created by the public debt in their letter and spirit, and will secure to disabled soldiers the full amount of their pensions without allowing a dollar to be deducted for the fees of agents.

VII. It will repeal all laws which permit the Federal Government, or any of its officers, to interfere with elections in the States.

VIII. It will make it a high misdemeanor, punishable by dismissal from the service, for any officer of the army or navy to aid in the suppression of domestic violence in a State unless the State authorities have made a previous application to the President for such assistance, in conformity to the Constitution; or to interfere for enforcing any federal law unless a federal judge shall have previously certified that the execution of the laws is resisted by a combination too powerful to be overcome by the marshal and his posse.

IX. The Democratic party will remove all the political disabilities and disqualifications imposed for participation in the late civil war. X. It will recognize the binding force of the three new amendments to the Constitution so long as they are held to be valid by the Supreme Court.

The World remarks:

"Here are no flourishes, no buncombe, no vague, cloudy theories which cannot be reduced to practice. If there is any Southern citizen who does not think this list of measures would bring relief from and redress of present evils and grievances, we cannot respect his judgment. And if, on the other hand, any Republican insists that the policy here sketched is a mere bundle of negotiations and dead issues, he forfeits all claim to be considered a candid opponent."

The Problem in South Carolina.

Mr. Henry W. Raymond, the son of the brilliant and lamented founder of the New York Times, has been to Columbia talking with our Radical magnates. He reports the views of the Attorney-general as follows:

"Mr. Chamberlain thought it still an unanswered question whether Republicanism in South Carolina must not be considered as a failure so far. The situation was grave, and the only salvation of the State lay with the men of intelligence and education in the State itself. Could they be brought to try and remedy the evils, to appreciate fully the condition of the negro and accept his suffrage, their influence over the black race was certainly sufficient to bring them into the legislative councils with the remedies which they could best administer and suggest. Brains and the confidence of the intelligent portion of the citizens was what the State most needed. The last Legislature was ignorant and openly corrupt to a degree that was disgraceful. Adventurers in search of office, unprincipled men, left behind by the dissolution of the Freedmen's Bureau, and who there acquired an influence among the negroes, plundered the State treasury for their own benefit, and cared little or nothing for the weal of the Commonwealth. Honesty of purpose, unless combined with the ability to carry it out, did not amount to much. It was time, he thought, that the condition of the State as it was, uncovered by any partisan veil, should be understood at the North, and with the undercurrent of discontent and disaffection which rendered everything uneasy, disagreeable and unpleasant, it might be well to consider whether the temporary success of a party should not yield to the actual needs of the State."

Captain F. W. Dawson, one of the editors and proprietors of The News, sailed for Liverpool from New York yesterday in the steamship Idaho, of the Williams & Gulton line. Captain Dawson proposes to remain in England, with his family, for a few weeks, and expects to be back in Charleston by the middle of July.

A Financial Dead-Load.

The brokers of Broad street are not a little exercised at the results of the late decision in the Court of Common Pleas in the case of the Estate of Francis S. de la Bank of Charleston. The banks very naturally, in the face of that decision, decline to transfer stocks, &c., upon the certificate of the O. dinary (or, in lieu of any other official), that executors or administrators are authorized to order such transfer; and the consequence is that the transactions in securities belonging to the estate of deceased persons are suddenly brought to a standstill. It would seem that the power of disposing of such securities ought certainly to be lodged somewhere, and the brokers live in hope that they will yet be relieved from their present awkward dilemma, by the reversal of the decision referred to, in the Court of Appeals.

The Old Jargon.

A Parisian landlady, who had been defrauded of her rents by the Commune, was bold enough to declare that the new government would not last long at that rate it was going. The statement was made before the commissaire, whereupon the following dialogue ensued:

"What," thundered the commissaire, "do you pretend, madame, to say that the best government the world ever saw, elected by the people, will not exist?"

"Sir, I only stated that my impressions—"

"Madame, be kind enough not to state your impressions."

"I beg pardon, sir, I merely repeated what I heard."

"Madame, I don't want to hear any such repetitions. The Commune has been elected by the people and must be eternal. You know what you have to do."

Butler and his myrmidons come again, as in 1861-5! O, "best government the world ever saw!" what crimes are committed in thy name! There's a Roland for your Oliver.

A Word for Bridget.

And now we learn from a chivalric defender of the much-abused Irish servant girl at the North, that one cause of trouble between "mistress" and "help" is founded upon the contempt in which the former holds the latter; for, says the critic, "not one lady in ten treats her servants with common humanity, or recognizes the fact that they are 'made of flesh and blood.' Harsh language, but true no doubt. But what else can 'poor white trash' expect at the hands of 'friends of humanity and equal rights'?"

Married.

PREVENTIVE MEDICATION.—A radical change has been introduced in the practice of medicine. Physicians have ceased to torture and prostrate their patients. Instead of pulling down, they build up; instead of assaulting nature, they assist her. Coughing, leprosy, biliousness, venereal disease, catarrh, suppuration, neuralgia, and rashes purgative, once the favorite resources of the faculty, and now rarely resorted to even by the most dogmatic members of the profession. The old creed was that disease was something which must be expelled by violent artificial means, irrespective of the wear and tear of the vital organization in the process. The new creed recognizes the improvement of the general health as essential to the cure of all local ailments. Hence it is that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most potent vegetable tonic that pharmacy has ever brought to the assistance of nature in her struggles with disease, has been cordially approved by practitioners of the modern school. It is pleasant to reflect that reason and philosophy have at last triumphed over the errors of the past, and that human beings are alive and well to-day who would undoubtedly be mouldering in their graves, had they been subjected to the pains and penalties which were deemed orthodox and indispensable thirty or forty years ago.

Preventive medication was scarcely thought of then; but now it is considered of paramount importance, and the celebrity of the standard invigorant, alterative and restorative of the age, (a title which HOSTETTER'S BITTERS have fairly earned by their long career of success), is mainly due to its efficiency as a protective preparation. A course of the Bitters is urgently recommended as a safe and certain antidote to intermittent and remittent fevers, diarrhoea, dysentery and other maladies. apr29-50ac

READ CAREFULLY. FEVER AND AGUE. The only preventive known for Chills and Fever is the use of Wolfe's Scliamed Schnapps. WOLFE'S SCLIAMED SCHNAPPS Is good for Dyspepsia.

WOLFE'S SCLIAMED SCHNAPPS Is a preventive of Chills and Fever. WOLFE'S SCLIAMED SCHNAPPS Is good for all Urinary Complaints. WOLFE'S SCLIAMED SCHNAPPS Is recommended by all the Medical Faculty. WOLFE'S SCLIAMED SCHNAPPS Is good for Colic and pain in the stomach. WOLFE'S SCLIAMED SCHNAPPS Is invaluable and counteracted, and purchasers will have no cause for complaint in purchasing.

I beg leave to call the attention of the reader to testimonials in favor of the Schnapps: I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events it is the purest possible article of Holland gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D., Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York. LOUISVILLE, Ky., September 1. I feel that we have now an article of gin suitable for such cases as that remedy is adapted to. DR. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, &c. I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant. CHAS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

No. 10 PINE STREET, N. Y., Nov. 21, 1867. DOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Providence, R. I.—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Scliamed Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits. The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixtures. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Scliamed Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHROMICAL AND TECHNICAL LABORATORY, 13 EXCHANGE PLACE, N. Y., Nov. 23, 1867. DOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Dear Sir.—The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Scliamed Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities. Respectfully yours, (Signed) ALEX. TRUFFEL, Chemist. FRANCIS E. ENGELHARD, M. D.
